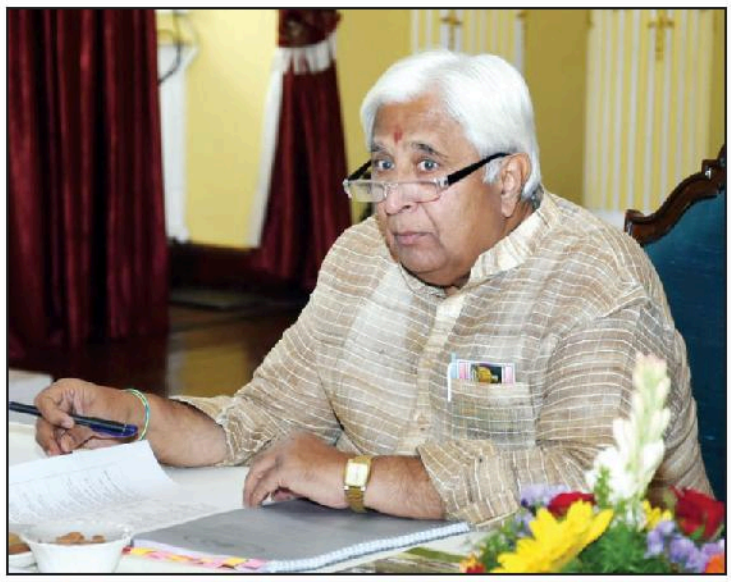
No hurry to execute PRASHAD Scheme atop Chamundi Hill

Yet-to-be-constituted Chamundi Hill Development Authority must approve any activity, says Tourism Minister

Mysuru, July 24 (MTY&BCT)- Minister for Tourism, Law, Parliamentary Affairs and Legislation H.K. Patil has categorically stated that the Centre's proposal for the holistic development of Chamundi Hill under the Pilgrimage Rejuvenation And Spiritual, Heritage Augmentation Drive (PRASHAD) Scheme at an estimated cost of Rs. 45.70 crore will have to be approved by the yet-to-be-constituted Chamundi Hill Development Authority.

The State Budget for 2023-24 presented by Chief Minister Siddharamaiah includes a proposal to establish Chamundi Hill Development Authority, which aims to facilitate sustainable development of the Hill. "Approval from the Authority will be mandatory. There is no tearing hurry. We will discuss the pros and cons of the PRASHAD Scheme before it is implemented," the Minister said.



Tourism Minister H.K. Patil in Mysuru this morning.

He was speaking to reporters atop Chamundi Hill this morning after having darshan of Sri Chamundeshwari. This is Patil's first visit to Mysuru after the new Government was formed and he said that he prayed for the well-being of the region, including good rains and prosperity.

Patil was supposed to go around the Hill during his visit today to inspect the places where the PRASHAD Scheme has been proposed to be put into action. However, the Minister cancelled the inspection as it was premature to visit now, even before the preparation and submission of the Detailed Project Report (DPR) for PRASHAD Scheme.

"Officials have given me a small booklet on the PRASHAD scheme and apart from this, nothing has moved. I am told that officers are preparing the DPR and the Department of Tourism, Karnataka, will be the implementing agency for execution of the project. The DPR will include all the details and finer details including environment impact. PRASHAD scheme cannot be implemented in a hurry and time is required," the Minister said.

Sustainable development

The Minister said that as the announcement of the Chamundi Hill Development Authority has been made by the CM and work is on to constitute the Authority, its approval is mandatory. "See, processes of the constituting the Authority, fund allocation, powers and members, administrative members and heads and jurisdiction are all being worked out. At the same time, the DPR too is in the making. Any development atop the Hill will have to have a sanction from the Authority," he added.

This 12-year-old work on Town Hall parking lot is a Public Disgrace

Ahead of Dasara, MCC Commissioner, Deputy Commissioner inspect multi-level parking

Mysuru, July 24 (GA&DM)- Come Dasara, the Town Hall parking lot is thrown open for public but closes after the festival ends. This has been in practice by the civic body since 2018.

With this year's Dasara festival to be inaugurated on Oct. 15 and the High-Power Committee meeting to be held in the State capital by month end, Mysuru City Corporation (MCC) Commissioner G. Lakshmikantha Reddy and MCC Deputy Commissioner (Development) Sindhu visited the spot this morning and carried out an inspection.

Speaking to Star of Mysore, Sindhu said that major structural works of the multi-level parking lot in Town Hall in the heart of city is nearing completion and the ongoing ramp works will be completed in a fortnight.

Pointing out that installation of fire extinguishers and safety equipment, electrical works and minor civil works on toilets has to be done and will be taken up shortly, she said that tenders are invited for electrical and other works.

When our reporter asked senior citizens about this longest ongoing public work by the MCC, the response was by remembering MCC Commissioners like A.B. Ibrahim and Dr. C.G. Betsurmath. — Ed

Noting that only the first floor was used during last year's Dasara, she said that now both the basement and first floor of the parking lot will be made available before this year's Dasara.

Referring to water-logging and seepage in the basement which led to a lot complaints during last year's Dasara, she said that the seepage has now been completely plugged by taking up necessary civil works.

EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

One of sport's eternal qualities is its uncanny knack of replenishing itself. The old gives way to the new and the past yields place to the future. Men's tennis though was resistant to this, where every new dawn — like Dominic Thiem's and Daniil Medvedev's US Open victories in 2020 and 2021 — ended up being a false hope. Wimbledon 2023 however made the sport feel young again as 20-year-old Carlos Alcaraz dethroned four-time defending champion and record 23-time Major winner Novak Djokovic following a five-set thriller that lasted nearly five hours. The youngest since a 17-year-old Boris Becker secured the men's crown at SW19 in 1985, Alcaraz, the reigning US Open champion and World No.1, is only the sixth multiple Grand Slam titlist in the last two decades after Roger Federer, Rafael Nadal, Djokovic, Andy Murray and Stan Wawrinka. Just recently, the Spaniard had succumbed to Djokovic — 16 years his senior — in the French Open semifinals owing to stress-induced, full-body cramps.

There was however one tradition in the men's game that Alcaraz kept up. Ever since Federer won his first Major at Wimbledon 2003, prodigiously talented players have toppled the established rather than wait for a void to slip into. Nadal did that to Federer with his triumph at Wimbledon 2008 and Djokovic to both Nadal and Federer, across surfaces, for a good part of the last decade. Alcaraz has embarked on a similar path, to first fell his predecessors and carve out a niche for himself before supplanting them to become the next leader.

Gorilla mistaken to be male gives birth at Zoo

Ohio: A gorilla, whose zoo-keepers had thought it to be a male, discovered it to be a female when she was found holding her new born baby girl.

Zookeepers at the Columbus Zoo in Ohio said in a statement that the 8-year-old Sully, a western lowland gorilla, has lived at the facility with her mother and fellow troop members since 2019. For five years, the zoo believed she was a male.

"It's hard to tell the sex of younger gorillas. Until about age 8, males and females are about the same size and they don't have prominent sex organs," the zoo said in a statement.

Gorillas rarely show outward signs of pregnancy because the newborns are smaller than human babies and gorillas naturally have large abdomens.

The zoo will also conduct a DNA test to determine the baby's father. Sully and the infant live in a troop that has three males led by 39-year-old silverback Mac.

Provide sufficient space around trees for water retention

Sir,

It is heartening to note that the roads in Mysuru city are getting asphalted after a gap of several years. But what is not understandable is that the entire width of the road is being tarred without leaving any uncovered margin of natural surface. I wonder what purpose will it serve?

If it rains heavily, there won't be any space left on the ground to absorb water as the storm water drains are mostly choked with garbage and other waste materials. And in most of the places even the drainage works are half-done. The net result will be flooding of roads and water-logging especially in low-lying areas. This will result in depletion in groundwater levels.

Also, the trees on the sidewalks are not provided with sufficient space around depriving them of adequate water retention and aeration. As such the trees may get uprooted easily without resistance against heavy winds.

Why are these facts not taken into consideration while asphalting roads. Can anybody explain?

By leaving a margin of natural surface on either side of the roads, the cost of asphalting can be brought down and therefore more roads can be taken up for asphalt.

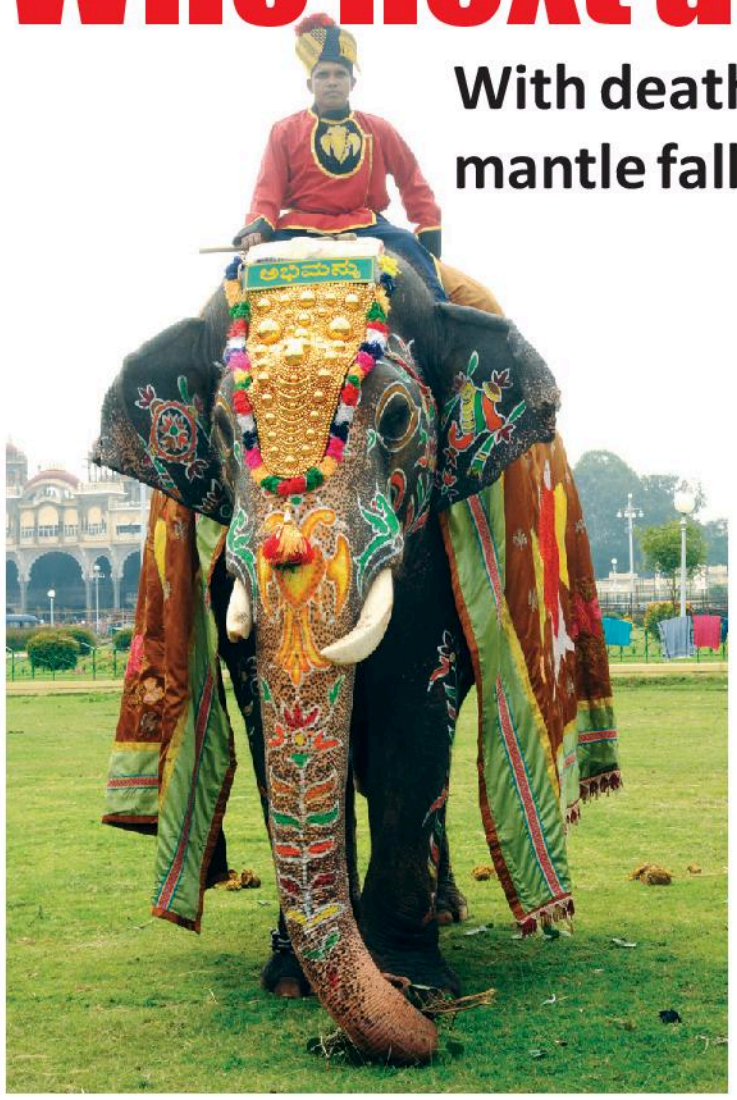
Who next after Abhimanyu?

With death of Drona (junior) and Gopalaswamy, the mantle falls on Dhananjaya, Gopi, Mahendra, Bhima



By M.T. Yogesh Kumar

Mysuru, July 24- As the highly-anticipated Dasara festival draws near, extensive preparations are underway to ensure the success of the event.

However, the Forest Department is facing a significant challenge in identifying and training a new batch of tamed elephants to be the centre of attention during the festival. This responsibility has been thrust upon the senior and junior officers of the Department, as well as the Mahouts and Kavadis, who are tasked with selecting a suitable Howdah Elephant after the retirement of Captain Abhimanyu.

To address this challenge, the Department has initiated a plan to train new elephants from the second line to participate in the procession. Captain Abhimanyu, who currently carries the 750-kg Golden Howdah, has two to three more years before his well-deserved retirement.

Last year, Abhimanyu, at 57 years old, became a hat-trick hero after successfully completing his third Jumboo Savari. However, with Abhimanyu nearing the retirement age, finding a worthy successor has become a topic of discussion, with Dhananjaya, Gopi, Mahendra, and Bhima being considered as potential candidates.

Responsibility passed on from Arjuna

Abhimanyu took over the mantle from Arjuna after the latter's retirement and has been accomplishing his weighty role with ease and majesty. Arjuna retired after he turned 60. As per the Supreme Court directions and Union Government's guidelines, no elephant aged above 60 years is supposed to be tasked with heavy and stressful duty.

Identifying the replacement for the Golden Howdah-carrying elephants is a key concern for the Forest Department. They are focused on selecting lead elephants from both the first and second lines, who will be capable of carrying the Howdah effortlessly for eight to ten years.

The presence of Jumboo Savari in Dasara is an integral tradition that cannot be given amiss, making it imperative for the Department to identify and train elephants years in advance for their future assignments, including the Howdah -carrying duty.

In the wake of the COVID-19 pandemic, the 2020 and 2021 Dasara festivities were limited to the Mysore Palace premises. Even the training of new elephants for the procession had been limited to the Palace premises instead of the full-fledged training till Bannimantap, amidst the busy traffic and honking vehicles.

However, with the situation improving, the Forest Department is now dedicating more attention to the training of the new batch. Dhananjaya, Mahendra, and Bhima — all touted to be future Howdah elephants — are being considered as part of the first batch to join Captain Abhimanyu in the procession.

Two tragic deaths

Tragically, the death of elephant Drona (junior), once tipped as the next-in-line Howdah Elephant, following a heart attack in 2019 and the demise of Gopalaswamy, who died of injuries in a fight with a wild elephant in 2022, have added to the Department's concerns.

Additionally, officials are contemplating the inclusion of elephants like Lakshmi (Doddaharave) and Kaveri or Vijaya in the future. Furthermore, Gopi, Sugreeva and Srirama elephants, who participated in the last procession, are expected to return this time. Bhima, Srikanta, and Sriranga are under the radar of the selection team and likely to secure their positions for the grand event.

The Dasara festival commences with the Gajapayana and its grandeur is fully realised only when the elephants arrive at the Mysore Palace in a disciplined and majestic manner. This captivating procession attracts thousands of people and symbolises the true spirit of Dasara.

Gajapayana last week of August

The much-awaited Gajapayana (elephant march from the forest to Mysuru city) is scheduled to commence in the last week of August. The first batch of elephants will make their way to Mysuru in that Gajapayana.

The festival this year is set to be celebrated from Oct. 15 to Oct. 24, with the grand finale of Vijayadashami taking place on Oct. 24. The elephants are expected to reach Mysuru 55 to 60 days ahead of Vijayadashami.

Forest officials met the member of the erstwhile Mysore royal family Pramoda Devi Wadiyar on June 22 to discuss the Dasara festivities, Jumboo Savari, the elephant team, and the Gajapayana. Chief Conservator of Forests, Mysuru Circle Dr. Malathi Priya, Deputy Conservator of Forests (Wildlife) Saurabh Kumar, Range Forest Officer Santosh Hugar, and Veterinarian Dr. Mujeeb participated in the meeting.

After the meeting, they inspected suitable areas within the Mysore Palace for setting up enclosures to build sheds for the families of Mahouts and Kavadis and the location where the elephants would be tied.

Arjuna doubtful as Nishane Elephant

Amidst the preparations for Dasara festival, there have been reports concerning the participation of Arjuna, a prominent and experienced elephant, who has served as the Nishane elephant for several years.

Arjuna's age has raised concerns, casting uncertainty on his involvement in this year's festivities. Despite his advanced years, officials are carefully considering the possibility of including Arjuna as the Nishane elephant, taking into account his wealth of experience, alertness and exceptional command-obeying capabilities.

Officers assured that Arjuna will be closely monitored leading up to the date of Gajapayana. Any signs of behavioural changes attributed to age will be attentively observed. If even slight indications of age-related challenges arise, Arjuna will be promptly replaced with a reliable back-up elephant as the Nishane elephant.

Emphasising their commitment to the well-being and success of the festival, officials highlighted that they are closely monitoring all elephants, ensuring a proactive approach to address any potential issues. The Department has a dedicated back-up elephant team in place to handle any unforeseen circumstances and to maintain the continuity and splendour of Dasara.

Minister holds closed-door meeting with JLR officials

Mysuru, July 24 (BLU&BCT)- After arriving in Mysuru last evening, Tourism Minister H.K. Patil stayed overnight at the Lalitha Mahal Palace Hotel.

This morning, after visiting Chamundeshwari Temple atop the Chamundi Hill and Indira Gandhi Rashtriya Manav Sangrahalaya (IGRMS) on Irwin Road, Patil held a closed-door meeting of tourism officials and the officers from the Jungle Lodges and Resorts (JLR) at Lalitha Mahal Palace Hotel. Some of the other high-ranking officers in Bengaluru were connected through video-conferencing facility.

Present at the Mysuru meeting were Additional Chief Secretary, Department of Tourism, Kapil Mohan, Karnataka State Tourism Development Corporation (KSTDC) Managing Director G. Jagadeesha, Tourism Director Dr. Ram Prasath Manohar and Mysuru Deputy Commissioner Dr. K.V. Rajendra. The minutes of the meeting were not available to the media.

Patil later visited the Department of Archaeology, Museums and Heritage's Treasury (strong room) inside the Mysore Palace that houses rare and exclusive historical and archaeological-value artefacts from Karnataka and the Department's library. Here too, reporters were not allowed and there was opportunity only for photographers.

The Minister was supposed to hold a media briefing at the office of the Palace Board at 1 pm. However, this got delayed due to certain unscheduled engagements.

In the afternoon, he was scheduled to visit the residential complex of the Palace to meet the erstwhile member of the Mysore royal family Pramoda Devi Wadiyar. Later, Patil will proceed to Sri Ramakrishna Ashram at Yadavagiri. From there, he will return to Bengaluru by road.

Old DC Office to be a Museum: H.K. Patil

Mysuru, July 24 (BLU&BCT)- Tourism Minister H.K. Patil announced this afternoon that there are plans to convert the old DC Office into a Museum. Given the current vacant status of the DC Office and its appealing structural design, it seems like an ideal location for a Museum, he said.

Speaking at a press conference held at the Mysuru Palace Board, he said, "I will discuss the matter with Chief Minister Siddharamaiah and take a decision accordingly."

Minister Patil also raised concerns about the eastern wing of the Mysore Palace, which has been closed for a decade, housing the Treasury of the Department of Archeology, Heritage and Museums. He expressed his dissatisfaction with keeping rare artefacts hidden from the public, stating, "What is the point in closing off such precious objects? They should be open to the public and tourists."

He further emphasised that the plan is to showcase the art and culture of Mysuru and Karnataka region through these objects in the Museum.

Moreover, the Minister addressed the issue of tourists facing difficulties during the Dasara festival. To provide better assistance, there is a proposal to establish a Tourist Police system during Dasara. Additionally, they plan to introduce QR codes, allowing tourists to access information about tourist spots and their histories at a reasonable price.

For further development, Minister Patil has formed a committee led by Deputy Commissioner to utilise the vacant 80-acre area of Dasara Exhibition Grounds. The committee has been tasked with submitting a report within 20 days of its formation.

City tourism stakeholders call on Patil; seek a sector boost

Mysuru, July 24 (BLU&BCT)- Tourism stakeholders of Mysuru met Tourism Minister H.K. Patil at Lalitha Mahal Palace Hotel this morning and urged him to encourage the sector in Mysuru.

The stakeholders included former MLA Vasu, Mysuru Travels Association (MTA) President C.A. Jayakumar, Federation of Organisations and Associations of Mysuru (FOAM) President B.S. Prashanth and members and office-bearers of the Mysuru unit of Skal International.

The stakeholders urged the Minister to initiate a dialogue on how to give more impetus to Mysuru tourism sector and also requested him to take the stakeholders into confidence before taking any decision on tourism. They also invited the Minister to the Skal India Congress-2023 in Mysuru and Bengaluru from Oct. 4 to 8 this year.

Skal International is an association of travel and tourism professionals that encourages and creates a network of contacts around the world. The event will provide a comprehensive platform for professionals interested in contributing to the advancement of the travel industry and the event is supported by the Karnataka Department of Tourism. The stakeholders also sought funds from the Government as the event has a budget of Rs. 1 crore.

PRASHAD Scheme

"Chamundi Hill is a place of heritage, pilgrimage destination and also a tourist centre. We have to treat it in a balanced way so that there is no conflict and at the same time, the sanctity of the Hill, its greenery will have to be preserved. We will take all stakeholders into confidence and initiate development that is satisfactory to all," Tourism Minister Patil said.

"No harm will be caused to the Hill and I am aware of the past landslides, the ongoing restoration works and the demand of environmental activists. There is no hurry to develop the Hill just because the Centre has approved PRASHAD Scheme and things will take time. All development will be sustainable and environment-friendly," Patil said.

As Dasara is approaching, all necessary preparations are being made, and Patil said that he will conduct meetings with authorities to gather all relevant information.

Rain intensifies in Kodagu; Normal life disrupted

Hemmethalu bridge in Madikeri Taluk.

Madikeri/Mysuru, July 24 (PS,Akshay&BCT)- Monsoon has significantly intensified in Kodagu, with the region experiencing heavy to very heavy rains for the past four days. As a result, the reservoirs downstream of the catchment areas are witnessing a substantial increase in water inflow.

The Cauvery River has regained life in Kodagu even as 25,500 cusecs of water is being released from Harangi Dam. There is an inflow of 21,740 cusecs this morning.

The district has experienced a delayed start to the monsoon, and the possibility of heavy rainfall for another five days is predicted. The hilly terrains and river catchment areas are causing anxiety among the residents due to the threat of landslides and flooding.

The ongoing heavy rainfall has disrupted normal life in the district, causing roads to be inundated. Particularly, Bhagamandala, where the river Cauvery originates and the areas where Lakshmanatheertha River flows in the South, have faced flooding. Since Friday evening, the relentless downpour, accompanied by strong winds, has forced people to remain indoors, unable to venture outside and anxiously watching the situation unfold.

Town Hall parking lot

"The entry to the parking lot will be from the gate facing Gandhi Square and exit from the gate near Dr. B.R. Ambedkar Statue. The parking fee structure has not yet been decided and the higher authorities will discuss the matter in due course and fix the parking fees," MCC Dy. Commissioner (Development) Sindhu said adding that the parking lot facility will be available for public service by Dasara. The works of the ambitious parking lot began way back in 2011 and even after 12 long years, the facility is used only temporarily during Dasara.

WORD OF THE DAY

Golem

Pronunciation: GOH-lum.
Meaning: Golem refers in Jewish folklore to an artificial humanoid being endowed with life. It can also refer to someone or something (such as a robot) resembling such a being.
Origin: The Hebrew ancestor of the word golem means "shapeless mass," and the original mythical golems started as lumps of clay that were formed into figures and brought to life by means of a charm or a combination of letters forming a sacred word. In the Middle Ages, golems were thought to be the perfect servants; their only fault was that they were sometimes too literal or mechanical in fulfilling their masters' orders. In the 16th century, the golem was thought of as a protector of the Jews in times of persecution. But following its entrance into English, golem acquired a less friendly second sense, referring to a man-made monster that inspired many of the back-from-the-dead creations of classic horror fiction. These days, the word golem is frequently used in the gaming world for a variety of foes and beasties made of materials ranging from ice to iron to even, in one game, candy.
Example: "There is no game like Cuphead. The passion project ... instantly set itself apart from the wide swath of 2D action games with its uncanny recreation of the 1930s cartoon aesthetic. ... There's no filler here, and every fight stands out as a memorable experience, from a bearded stone golem and his pack of evil gnomes to a train-riding cow who sees the business end of a pressure cooker only to keep on fighting." — Russ Frushtick, Polygon.com, 30 June 2022

PHRASE OF THE DAY

A golden key can open any door

Meaning: 'A golden key opens any door' is the opinion that sufficient money, or the promise of it, will allow the possessor of it to do anything they wish.
Origin: This notion must be as old as money itself. The first person who is known to have written it down is the English playwright John Lyly, in Euphues and his England, 1580: Who is so ignorant that knoweth not, gold be a key for euery locke, chieflye with his Ladye.
The proverb was the basis of the 1969 British film comedy The Magic Christian, in which characters played by Peter Sellars and Ringo Starr use large amounts of money to bribe people to humiliate themselves by doing things completely out of character.
